UTILIZING THE WATERS OF VADDINAKERE VEERAPUR VILLAGE TO THE GARDEN LANDS SITUATED IN SURVEY Nos. 121-A AND 121-B OF DURVEGERE.

Q.—249 Sri D. T. SEETHARAMA RAO (Bhadravathi)—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) since when the ryots of Durvegere Village are praying for permission for utilizing the waters of Vaddinakere of Veerapur village to the garden lands situated in S. No. 121/A and 121/B of Durvegere village by bringing the said two survey numbers under the wet atchkat of the said tank ;

(b) whether it is a fact that the said garden lands though belong to the wet atchkat of a tank in Chickamagalur District could not get water since they are situated in higher level and the tanks is in lower level ;

(c) whether they would consider to include the said garden lands in the wet atchkat of Vaddinakere of Veerapur village as there is sufficient water in the said tank ;

(d) the opinion expressed by the Public Works Department and the Revenue authorities in this behalf after examining this matter

A.—KADIDAL MANJAPPA (Minister for Revenue).—

(a) Since 10th December 1960.

(b) Water is being given only to part of these garden lands since the entire area of S. No. 121/A and 121/B is at a higher level.

(c) No.

(d) Both Revenue and P.W.D. authorities have opened that inclusion of these survey numbers in the wet atchkat of Voddinakere is not desirable as the Veerapura Voddu does not admit of any further increase to the wet atchkat.
